DETAILED ACTION

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 102

The following is a quotation of the appropriate paragraphs of 35 U.S.C. 102 that form the basis for the rejections under this section made in this Office action:

A person shall be entitled to a patent unless –

(b) the invention was patented or described in a printed publication in this or a foreign country or in public use or on sale in this country, more than one year prior to the date of application for patent in the United States.

Claims 1, 2, 11 and 12 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(b) as being anticipated by Ballou et al (US 4,757,463). The “interrogating data” (column 8, line 31) is construed as data that the diagnostic function could have found a fault. Diagnostic function data is transmitted in a standard (i.e. uniform) format (column 7, lines 15-20) to a central function of PC AT controller 150.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 103

The following is a quotation of 35 U.S.C. 103(a) which forms the basis for all obviousness rejections set forth in this Office action:

(a) A patent may not be obtained though the invention is not identically disclosed or described as set forth in section 102 of this title, if the differences between the subject matter sought to be patented and the prior art are such that the subject matter as a whole would have been obvious at the time the invention was made to a person having ordinary skill in the art to which said subject matter pertains. Patentability shall not be negated by the manner in which the invention was made.

Claim 9 is rejected under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) as being unpatentable over Ballou et al (US 4,757,463). Ballou et al discloses the claimed invention as stated above except for the slow computation raster. It would have been an obvious matter of routine optimization to one having ordinary skill in the art at the time the invention was made to provide the diagnostic system of Ballou et al with a slow computation raster.

Art Unit: 3747

"[W]here the general conditions of a claim are disclosed in the prior art, it is not inventive to discover the optimum or workable ranges by routine experimentation." In re Aller, 220 F.2d 454, 456, 105 USPQ 233, 235 (CCPA 1955).

Allowable Subject Matter

Claims 3-8 and 10 are allowed.

Response to Arguments

Applicant's arguments have been fully considered but they are not persuasive. Given the broadest reasonable interpretation, the limitation "could have found a fault" does not distinguish over the inherent operation of the "Fault Detection Procedure" as described beginning at column 8, line 30, of Ballou et al. The "interrogating data" is construed as data that the diagnostic function could have found a fault. Applicant's disclosure provides no basis for concluding that the uniform format as claimed is different from the standard format as disclosed by Ballou et al. The arguments regarding this feature are based on conclusions unsupported by evidence. The arguments of counsel cannot take the place of evidence in the record. In re Schulze, 346 F.2d 600, 602, 145 USPQ 716, 718 (CCPA 1965); In re Geisler, 116 F.3d 1465, 43 USPQ2d 1362 (Fed. Cir. 1997).

Applicant is advised that the statutory requirements set forth in paragraph [0004] of the specification would appear to constitute prior art providing a clear suggestion and motivation to one having ordinary skill in the art to modify existing diagnostic systems to provide the required documentation.

Art Unit: 3747

Conclusion

THIS ACTION IS MADE FINAL. Applicant is reminded of the extension of time policy as set forth in 37 CFR 1.136(a).

A shortened statutory period for reply to this final action is set to expire THREE MONTHS from the mailing date of this action. In the event a first reply is filed within TWO MONTHS of the mailing date of this final action and the advisory action is not mailed until after the end of the THREE-MONTH shortened statutory period, then the shortened statutory period will expire on the date the advisory action is mailed, and any extension fee pursuant to 37 CFR 1.136(a) will be calculated from the mailing date of the advisory action. In no event, however, will the statutory period for reply expire later than SIX MONTHS from the mailing date of this final action.
